MAY FAIR HOTEL SETS HEARTS RACING WITH CUPID CONCIERGE

Spend Valentine's Day in style at The May Fair Hotel

Planning a proposal for leap year, or in search of the ultimate romantic gesture – fear not, The May Fair, a perfectly located hotel in the heart of Mayfair, has hired a Cupid Concierge just in time for Valentine's Day.

The Cupid Concierge will be available to all guests, who have booked to stay at this luxury London hotel over the Valentine's period. The team will be on hand to help advise and indulge your every romantic whim. No request is too small or too grand for the Cupid Concierge, from arranging a decadent dinner, tickets to the theatre, sourcing bottles of vintage champagne, luxe limousines or hand picking the perfect piece of diamond-encrusted jewellery; and if discretion is required, they won't spoil the surprise!

Darren Marlow, head of Cupid Concierge at the May Fair Hotel, said: "We created this bespoke package as we know Valentine's Day can often leave many people in a panic. This is an ideal service for those who are too busy to shop or simply lacking in inspiration. Our team is intricately linked to London's finest restaurants, shows and exhibitions, so we are able to arrange bookings for the most sought-after tables, tickets and seats."

The Cupid Concierge is a complimentary service for all guests (subject to availability) and can be booked by calling 020 7915 2826. Room rates starting from just £235¹. For more information on the May Fair Hotel visit <http://www.themayfairhotel.co.uk>

NOTES TO EDITORS:

About The May Fair:

Situated in the heart of the Mayfair village, the May Fair Hotel has been a by-word for elegance and style since the twenties.

The May Fair (www.themayfairhotel.co.uk), first opened by King George V in 1927 and once owned by the filmmaking Danziger Brothers, is the official hotel for London Fashion Week and the BFI London Film Festival, in partnership with American Express. It has also been recognised for having "The Best Hotel Bar in London" by The Evening Standard.

The 406-room, West End hotel has hosted countless celebrities, heads of state, world leaders and cultural icons throughout its storied history. The hotel features 12 signature suites; a private VIP entrance; extraordinary banquet facilities, including the largest private theatre in London and the largest Baccarat chandelier in Europe; the world-class May Fair Spa; rooftop penthouse with 360° views of London; and a superlative staff attuned to the needs of the most discerning guest.

The May Fair Hotel was awarded Cool Brand status in 2010
